AT BACCHUS MARSH

A fresh perspective

A fresh perspective every single day

Stonehill is an exciting new masterplanned community in an inspiring location, rising above Bacchus Marsh with commanding views. On a clear day you can see the CBD from the highest parts of the community, while many other blocks have vistas to the Macedon Ranges.

At Stonehill you can enjoy the close-knit country spirit of Bacchus Marsh, yet you'll also have easy access to the convenience of the city.

Kids will love having plenty of places to play, while you can enjoy the health benefits of freshly picked local produce along the Avenue of Honour.

For extra relaxation, the health spas and fine dining at Daylesford are only a short drive away. Discover just how fantastic your family's future looks when you explore the limitless potential of life at Stonehill.

More time for extra enjoyment

The sheer convenience of life at Stonehill will create extra time for you to spend relaxing with your loved ones.

Within the wider Stonehill community, your home will be part of an individual village each with its own unique character. Stonehill will become a friendly neighbourhood where friends live just a short walk away.

Meanwhile Stonehill gives you the option to connect easily to the wider digital world. The community will be equipped with fibre optic cabling.

So once you choose your internet provider, you'll be able to enjoy internet speeds up to 100 times faster than standard cable or wireless connections. So you can connect to the office, stream the latest movies, play or watch live sport, simultaneously.

A fresh perspective on convenience

Stonehill lets you simplify today's busy lifestyle with a proposed retail precinct and school within the community. You'll be able to get better value and quality as you buy fresh fruit and vegies direct from the growers. Meanwhile there are a host of major retailers and speciality stores offering everything from fashion to food within easy reach.

When you just need a few groceries or a quick snack, there's the local FoodWorks supermarket and the traditional bakeries and cake shops in the centre of town.

For young families, Bacchus Marsh offers an excellent choice of childcare centres, family daycare and preschools, plus both government and highly sought-after private primary and secondary schools.

The new high-speed rail link has cut the travel time into the city, covering the 50 kilometres in as little as 40 minutes. Now that Bacchus Marsh has been reclassified as Zone 2, the tickets are cheaper too! By car, the nearby on-ramp to the Western Highway allows you to bypass local traffic and link up with all the major freeways to help you get where you want fast.

A fresh perspective on activities

You'll be amazed how much fun you can pack into your leisure time at Stonehill while staying fit at the same time.

With an extensive network of biking and hiking trails and masses of open space filled with local flora, you'll find just stepping out the front door relaxing and revitalising.

You can meet your friends in one of the many Stonehill parks or take the short drive to the Bacchus Marsh football club, the adventure playground at Maddingley Park, the Pony Club at the racecourse or enjoy the immensely popular Harvest Festival.

Then there's the aerodrome with its flight school and gliding clubs. Or you can really get away from it all by going swimming, fishing, rock climbing, kayaking and bushwalking at Werribee Gorge.
