INFRASTRUCTURE

EDGEWORTH NSW

Easy access to the cultural attractions of Newcastle, the tourist hotspots of Sydney, and the wineries of the Hunter Valley.

TRANSPORT

Edgeworth's Main Road takes motorists to the M1 Pacific Highway and Newcastle Link Road in just five minutes. These major roads help locals visit the Newcastle central business district in just 18 minutes, the vineyards of the Hunter Valley in 30 minutes, and Sydney in less than two hours.

It's an easy walk from the development to the bus stops on Minmi Road. Daily Hillsbus services take residents to shopping centres in Edgeworth, Glendale, and Charlestown, and Cardiff train station.

Cardiff train station is a 10-minute drive from Edgeworth. This major train station on the main northern line helps locals visit the Newcastle CDB in the north and the Central Coast and Sydney to the south.

Edgeworth is also just 30 minutes from Newcastle Airport. Jetstar, Virgin Australia, QantasLink, and Regional Express operate flights to the East Coast capitals, Ballina, and the Gold Coast from this growing transport hub.

RETAIL

Locals can take care of their day-to-day shopping needs at Edgeworth Town Square. This complex focuses on the essentials, with a Coles supermarket, building society, newsagency, chemist, and a variety of fresh and fast food outlets.

Edgeworth Town Square is just a minute from the larger Stockland Glendale Shopping Centre. This outdoor shopping mall, modelled on American retail centres, features more than 70 outlets including Coles, Woolworths, and Aldi supermarkets, JB Hi Fi, an Event Cinemas complex, various eateries, and a range of specialty shops.

EDUCATION

The boutique development is closeby Edgeworth Public School. It looks to provide a quality education in a nurturing environment for students from preschool to year six. The following educational facilities are also located nearby:

- Ⓞ St Benedict's Primary School
- Ⓞ Edgeworth Heights Public School
- Ⓞ Holy Cross Primary School
- Ⓞ West Wallsend High School
- Ⓞ Glendale Technology High School
- Ⓞ Hunter TAFE (Glendale campus)

MEDICAL SERVICES

Local residents are close to Edgeworth Medical Centre, a friendly family practice on Minmi Road. In addition to traditional GP services, the clinic offers childhood and travel vaccinations, employment medical assessments, women's health services, and a skin cancer centre.

Private patients can use Pendlebury Clinic in Cardiff, 10 minutes away. This small 13-bed hospital specialises in therapeutic pain management and cardiac procedures.

A more comprehensive range of services is available at the Newcastle region's largest healthcare facility, the John Hunter Hospital. This modern centre, 12 minutes from Edgeworth, features the only trauma centre in regional New South Wales and the busiest emergency department in the state. With 101 paediatric beds in its John Hunter Children's Hospital, and nearly 700 adult beds throughout the John Hunter and adjoining Royal Newcastle Centre, patients of all ages receive the very best care.

LIFESTYLE

It's easy to unwind from the stresses of the urban grind at Edgeworth. As part of Lake Macquarie, residents are just a short drive from this picturesque waterway. Locals enjoy fishing for flathead, snapper, and bream in the lake, relaxing with picnics in the foreshore parks, and cycling along the waterfront.

This boutique development is also just a short drive from a host of recreational facilities including Sugar Valley Golf Club, Mt Sugarloaf Kart Raceway, and local parklands.

Locals love the area's relaxed lifestyle, coupled with the convenience of having essential facilities like supermarkets, schools, and doctor's surgeries close at hand. It takes just a short drive to enjoy a picnic by Lake Macquarie or a day at Newcastle's beaches.

Did you know that more than 75% of Edgeworth locals are owner occupiers? This high ratio typically leads to higher than average capital growth, which makes properties in this suburb attractive to investors.
